

Thursday Noon Hour Concerts

Noon hour concerts are returning! We are pleased to have had a number of artists express interest in participating in a virtual noon hour concert and are very grateful to them for their flexibility in making this happen for us this year.

Each concert will be available at 12:15 on the St George's YouTube Channel (<https://bit.ly/SGCKingston>), and, just like Sunday services, will be available to watch afterwards. A number of the artists are well known to us and we welcome them back to St George's with much enthusiasm. This year, it is very exciting to include some overseas and out of town artists, one small blessing enabled by the pandemic. In particular, we highlight Sarah MacDonald, a Canadian organist playing a Canadian organ at Selwyn College in Cambridge, England.

- |         |  |
|---------|--|
| 23 July | Ian Bevell, organ; Dominion Chalmers United Church, Ottawa       |
| 30 July | Moellman Family, piano and violin; St Mary's Cathedral, Kingston |
| 6 Aug   | Sarah MacDonald, organ; Selwyn College, Cambridge                |
| 13 Aug  | Philip Rogers and Brian Jackson, poetry and music; Kingston      |
| 20 Aug  | Matthew Larkin, organ; Ottawa                                    |
| 27 Aug  | To be confirmed  |