

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Assistive Listening Devices (ALDs) are available. Please ask the sides people if you would like to use one. Look for the red lanyards.

The Flower Guild wishes to thank warmly all the members of the congregation who so enthusiastically supported our recent Edwardian melodrama, Only a Parson's Daughter. We greatly appreciate your unfailing support for all our endeavours. The play was a huge success thanks to you!

Rev. Dr. Stan Lucyk leads a critical, liberal interpretation of the Book of Genesis, ch. 1-12, entitled "Fig Leaves and a Floating Houseboat." Meetings will be held in the Library on Tuesdays from 2:00-3:30 pm on Nov. 20, 27, Dec. 4, and Dec. 11.

Kingston Chamber Choir presents Divinum Mysterium, a concert of music of the season including the work of John Burge, on December 16 at 2:30 at St. George's. Tickets are available at <https://www.kingstonchamberchoir.ca/tickets.html> or at the door.

Mrs. Patmore's Pantry has returned to the Narthex, courtesy of the Projects Group. After the 8:00 and 10:30 services on Dec. 2 and 9, take the opportunity to check out the many featured preserves, including St. George's Day chutney, crab apple jelly from the tree on the Johnson St. lawn, Christmas cake, pickles and much more! All great for gift giving or for your own pantry.

St. George's Youth Group: Just in time for the holidays, the Youth Group is organizing a drive to collect items for the family and youth shelters of Kingston. A wish list of items needed, including clothing, household goods, and toys and games, is available in the church office and on the Cathedral website: www.stgeorgescathedral.ca

St. George's Cathedral Advent Concerts continue on Thursday, Dec. 6 from 12:15 pm to 12:50 pm with the QuattroBone trombone ensemble performing music by J.S. Bach, Arvo Pärt, Claude Debussy, Matthew Emery, and others. The concerts continue on Thursdays through December 20.
